Office of Research Administration

- The Office of Research Administration (ORA) is led by Martha Ogilvie, PhD, Associate Vice President for Research.

- ORA collaborates with faculty, department administrators, and partner groups for submission of sponsored awards
  - ensure compliance with sponsor terms and conditions, University policies, and federal requirements of sponsored projects proposals
  - review and endorse sponsored projects proposals
  - negotiate and accept awards that support sponsored projects
  - prepare, negotiate, and issue subawards issued under OUHSC sponsored project awards

- ORA serves as liaison with sponsors for non-financial post-award management
  - Change in key personnel
  - Change in scope
  - (Grants and Contracts accounting serves as liaison for financial post-award management)

- Prepare, review, negotiate, oversee and manage non-standard sponsored-related business agreements related to the University’s core mission of education and research but falls outside of traditional sponsored research grants and contracts.
